Academics

This studious atmosphere prevails at all times in the R. H. S. study hall.

Even though our logic seems weak at times and the going gets rough often, we still really enjoy our physics class.

Home Economics classes, in addition to being educational, often produce lovely new suits, dresses, or jumpers.

Activities

The re-creation of Cinderella's Ball in 1961 was fun!

Greg has been a most able leader of our band.

The Junior's first try at play giving was a great success!

Citizenship

Football boys will eat anything,
so we've heard.
(Thank you, Sunshiners.)

Ever-willing council members at work.

This work is done cheerfully by Hi-Yer's for one of their many good projects.

Sports

Three Johns and a Mike winning for R.H.S.
(John Michael, Michael Green, John Hefner, John Kelly)

Coach Mathias instructs his players what to do next while Coach Regner contacts the press box by phone.

These five seniors and their coach watch films of games past so that they may improve their strategy in the future.

One of THE events during the Christmas season in Rensselaer is the high school music program. These are some of the students giving forth "golden tones" under the able direction of Mr. Mau.

Cinderella

As another year of school drew to a close, the class of '62 sponsored a prom...

We crowned Terry Davison and Wanda Pugh as King and Queen of our prom . . . . .

We called our prom "Cinderella Ball" but we didn't leave by midnight. We danced on and on to the music of The Starlighters . . . .

A momentary pause refreshed us and we could dance some more.

This intriguing mystery takes place on Indian Island off the coast of Devon, England. Suspect after suspect is eliminated by murder. Each death occurs in accordance with the rhyme "The Ten Little Indians." The little statuettes on the mantelpiece disappear one by one. The play is filled with suspicion, antagonism, suspense!

Junior Play "Diary of Anne Frank"

Meip has just given the glad tidings of D-Day. Tom Fischer, Dick Green, Maureen Scharf, Karen Evers, Joe Zimmer, Sherry Hunter, Candy Long, Thayer Tomlinson.

The Frank's were Jews in Germany during the war and were forced into hiding, together with the Van Dean's and Mr. Dussel. Anne, 14-year old daughter of the Frank's, kept a diary, containing many profound statements about life and people.

After the war the only survivor, Mr. Frank, returned to the hide-out and found that although the Nazis had taken everything of value, they had overlooked Anne's diary. This was published as a book and later as a play and as a movie.

Kraler (David Carter), who is in contact with the outside world for the Frank's, brings news to Mr. Frank (Tom Fischer).

Mr. and Mrs. Van Daan (George and Candy Long) are fighting over Mrs. Daan's fur coat, which he wants to sell so he can buy cigarettes.

Here is our own cheerful Richard Green crowning Marlene Culp as Homecoming Queen. Following the game, the Homecoming Dance, sponsored by the seniors, was a wonderful climax to a most eventful evening.

Homecoming for 1961

Our team always had good support by classmates, the Homecoming game being no exception.

A good view of our team in action and our playing field in the Homecoming game of 1961.

There's nothing like an enthusiastic cheering block to give our team the spark they need for victory!

Pep Club

Our special thanks to Mr. Lintner and the Pep Band for their contribution to a successful season.

The suspense is terrible! Wonder if he made it?

Those Who Help Us

We often fail to give credit to those people who are always there to help us when we need them the most. We take this opportunity to express gratitude to these people--cafeteria cooks, bookstore clerk, school nurse, janitors, and library assistants.

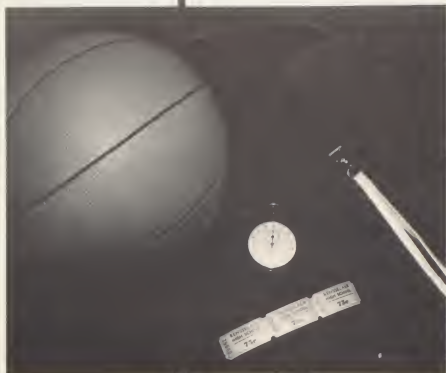

The cooks work long hours so that we may have a hot lunch each day. Mrs. Mary Spaletta, Mrs. Edith Gallagher, Mrs. Ione Linback, Mrs. Pauline Makus, Mrs. Eileen Duncan, Mrs. Joan Cochran, Miss Marvine Hamilton.

In addition to her full-time job as Secretary to the Elementary Principal, Mrs. Patricia Wagner operates our bookstore and has charge of selling lunch tickets. Mrs. Winifred Courtright helps us when we become ill or injured.

Our janitors make it possible for us to have clean surroundings at school. John Fellmy, Freeman Norris, Curt Anderson.

Our library assistants are always willing to aid us in finding information in the library. SEATED: Agnew, Phegley, Hopkins, Brunton, Vannest, Northcutt, Lucas, Tillison, Linder, Clarke.
